Underlined moves do not succeed. The German order to fleet St. Petersburg is illegal. The English order to fleet Naples is illegal being in support of an illegal order. The German fleet Sweden is dislodged and may retreat to Bothnia or Finland. The English army Burgundy is dislodged and may retreat to Gascony, Lorraine, or Ruhr.

Spring 1910 Retreats:

Moves for Fall 1910:

Underlined moves do not succeed. The German army Belgium and the Russian army Rumania are dislodged and annihilated. Following these moves the powers control the following supply centres:

Germany: 3 home, St. Pete., Holl.,
Rome, Venice, 3 Austrian,
Serb., Wars., Mosc., Rumania.
14 in all, no adjustment

England: 3 home, Norway, Swed.,
Denm., 3 French, Belgium,
2 Iberian, Tunis, Napl. 14 in all,
may build two.

Russia: Sevastopol. No adjustment.

Turkey: 3 home, Bulgaria, Greece,
5 in all, no adjustment.

At this point the question at issue seems to be settled reasonably satisfactorily, and I would be prepared to drop the game and write a commentary on it, if the two players wish. The only way that I can see to establish the point more definitely would be for Turkey to change sides at this point and come under Jeff Power's control. If both players wish the game will be continued with that change and builds should be made with the change in mind.
